Reports must be mailed in twice per academic school year. Each semester is 3-6 months long. **

Instructions for completing this form: Parent/Guardian should place the student’s final test grade under the corresponding workbook number. For example: Student has tested in English workbook 1097 and scored an 88. In the square marked English 1097, write "88".

Instructions for filling out attendance/grade report form: (on the back of this page).

When turning in the student’s report, please make sure attendance has been marked correctly and an average has been placed in the “NUMBER GRADE” section. Important: No credit(s) will be issued until the second semester has been submitted and approved by our staff. It is not necessary for parents to fill in that section. For instructions on averaging grades or any other questions please contact our office.
